Subscriptions

Reform now has a large and growing subscription readership. At only $5 per calendar year, it represents a good investment for a rapid briefing on issues before the law and some of the likely future developments in the Australian legal system. The bulletin is distributed widely in parliamentary, judicial, academic and government circles in Australia and overseas. It also has a large readership in non-legal circles and amongst students.

A new bonus for subscribers is that they will in future receive A.L.R.C. Summary Discussion Papers setting out in brief A.L.R.C. reform proposals. These will be sent FREE OF CHARGE with quarterly copies of Reform.

Reform as a gift: Why not give someone a gift subscription to Reform? It is the sort of gift that looks more valuable than it costs, and for good reason: it is more valuable than it costs.

Send subscriptions of $5 to: The Law Reform Commission, Box 3708, G.P.O., Sydney, N.S.W., 2001, Australia.
