

the constitutional commission

The Constitutional Commission has published a summary of the reports of its five Advisory Committees. It is entitled:

- 'Australia's Constitution — Time to Update'

The committees reported to the Commission in July and August 1987. They are:

- Committee on Executive Government
- Committee on Distribution of Powers
- Committee on Trade and National Economic Management
- Committee on the Australian Judicial System
- Committee on Individual and Democratic Rights

The reports are discussed in previous issues of Reform (see [1987] Reform 125 and [1987] Reform 181).

'Australia's Constitution — Time to Update' is available free of charge from

The Secretary
The Constitutional Commission
PO Box E2
ST JAMES NSW 2000

Free copies of the Australian Constitution are also available.

You can obtain these publications by writing to the Constitutional Commission or by phoning them on (02) 296341 or, their toll free number, (008) 02 3103

Sydney
31 January 1988

Views expressed are not necessarily those of the Attorney-General, his Department, or the Commission. Correspondence, information and views should be addressed to The Editor, 'Reform' GPO Box 3708 Sydney, NSW 2001, Australia (Telephone (02) 2311733).