
R E C E N T P U B L I C A T I O N S

The following recent works relating to administrative law may be of interest:

Australian Government Publishing Service

Administrative Review Council, Ninth Annual Report
1984 - 85

Commonwealth Ombudsman and Defence Force Ombudsman,
Annual Reports 1984 - 85

Baker, Paul

'Stop the charge - I want to get off' (1985) 59
Law Institute Journal 313

Bayne, Peter

'Freedom of information: recent developments'
(1985) 10 Legal Service Bulletin 45

Brown, R.A.

'The constitutionality of service tribunals under the Defence Force Discipline Act 1982' (1985) 59
Australian Law Journal 319

Cavanough, Tony

'Freedom of information and official investigations'
(1985) 59 Law Institute Journal 230

Disney, Julian

'Welfare rights: a contradiction in terms?' (1985)
59 Australian Law Journal 529

Durie, Robyn

'The Freedom of Information Act, the ABT and ABT 12
forms' (1985) 5 Communications Law Bulletin 21

Gzell, I.V.

'Administrative law remedies' (1985) 20 Taxation in Australia 358

Hennessy, Nancy & John Goldring

'Administrative character' (1985) 59 Australian Law
Journal 659

- Hughes, Bill
'Social Security Appeals Tribunals: Independence vs
DSS member?' (1985) 10 Legal Service Bulletin 280
- Nicholson, R.D.
'Administrative law: income taxation' (1985) 13
Australian Business Law Review 94
- Opas, P.H.N.
'Representation of parties before tribunals' (1985)
59 Australian Law Journal 463
- Richardson, Jack
'Lawyers should make more use of administrative channels' (1985) 20 Australian Law News 18
- & Kevin Sainsbury
'The Commonwealth Ombudsman and the Australian
Taxation Office' (1985) 20 Taxation in Australia 299
- Santamaria, Joseph
'Taxation and the review of administration' (1985) 55
Australian Accountant 35
- Smith, Loren A.
'Judicialization: the twilight of administrative law' (1985) Duke Law Journal 427

P E R S O N A L I A

Administrative Review Council

Dr John Griffiths has resigned as Director of Research with the Administrative Review Council. Dr Griffiths was director for 3 years and leaves the Council to go into private practice with Dawson Waldron, Solicitors, in Sydney. Mr Denis O'Brien, of the Commonwealth Attorney-General's Department, is presently acting as the Director of Research following Dr Griffiths' resignation.