Administrative Appeals Tribunal

Mr Bruce Pascoe, who was a taxation consultant and a former partner of the Chartered Accountants firm of Ernst and Young, was appointed to the Taxation Appeals and General Administrative Divisions of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal as a part-time member on 10 December 1991. Mr Pascoe has been appointed for five years and will be based in Melbourne.

Admin Review is a quarterly bulletin concerned with informing government, private organisations and individuals about developments in federal administrative law and procedure. It is produced under the auspices of the Administrative Review Council but the views expressed in the bulletin are not necessarily the views of the Council or any of its members. Although every care is taken in the preparation of the publication, no liability is accepted in respect of matters published in it. The purpose of the bulletin is to provide general information and not legal advice. Readers should carefully check the detail of legislation, cases and other material included in the bulletin. All inquiries concerning the bulletin, other than subscription inquiries, should be directed to the editor (address on front cover). Subscription inquiries should be directed to the Australian Government Publishing Service.
