

Administrative Appeals Tribunal

Three part-time Members have been appointed to the Tribunal since the last issue of Admin Review was published. They are:

- Dr Ann Cripps, who is currently in general practice in Sydney and a consultant to the Hospital Corporation of Australia. She has had wide experience in various facets of community medicine.
- Sister Margaret McGovern RSM, a social worker and currently Executive Director of the Mercy Family Life Centre in Sydney.
- Mr Ian Way, formerly the Deputy Principal and Registrar of the University of New South Wales. His previous career was in the army, in which he attained the rank of Colonel.

All three have been appointed for five years and are based in Sydney. Dr Cripps and Mr Way have been assigned to the General and Veterans' Divisions while Sister McGovern has been assigned to the General Division.

The appointment of Dr Eric Stephenson, a part-time Member based in Canberra expired on 21 July 1992. The appointment of Mr Edward O'Farrell, a part-time Member based in Hobart, expired on 8 August 1992. In addition, Professor Gordon Parker, a part-time Member based in Sydney, resigned with effect from 30 June 1992.

Ombudsman's office

The Prime Minister, Mr Keating, announced on 16 July 1992 the appointment of Mr Richard Mills to succeed Air Vice-Marshal Roy Frost as Deputy Ombudsman (Defence Force). Mr Mills, formerly head of the Resource Assessment Commission, was appointed for a three-year term from 30 July 1992. He has had considerable experience in the Departments of Defence and the Prime Minister and Cabinet and has conducted major inquiries with the Resources Assessment Commission.

[1992]

Admin

Review

Admin Review is a quarterly bulletin concerned with informing government, private organisations and individuals about developments in federal administrative law and procedure. It is produced under the auspices of the Administrative Review Council but the views expressed in the bulletin are those of the editor or writer and not necessarily the views of the Council or any of its members or the members of any of its committees. Although every care is taken in the preparation of the publication, no liability is accepted in respect of matters published in it. The purpose of the bulletin is to provide general information and not legal advice. Readers should carefully check the detail of legislation, cases and other material included in the bulletin. All inquiries concerning the bulletin, other than subscription inquiries, should be directed to the editor (address on front cover). Subscription inquiries should be directed to the Australian Government Publishing Service.