

The Spider's Web

Poor taste

To what were the closet members of the Alan Jones fan club referring at the Balmain/Penrith match?

Gotta get back to Jacks

Name the barrister who was decked by his six year old daughter in Hungry Jacks... The moral of the story is do not eat at Hungry Jacks.

April admissions

George Symeonakis, Crowe Hardy
Andrew Musgrave, Philip & Mitros
John Trew, QC, Visiting Counsel
Camilla Hughes, Cridlands
Gary Hevey, Visiting Counsel

TTT

Triple T Heaslip has come out of retirement to work for Turner & Deane on an occasional basis -- Tanya still has a problem with reverse parking near motobikes -- the Phantom video will be released soon.

Leaks welcome

Redback will gleefully accept salacious contributions from anyone with something to tell. Dead letter drops to the Supreme Court box of the Law Society.

Chilly ride

The Secretary-General of the Law Council was last seen at 4am in Alice Springs heading toward Bojangles perilously perched and hanging on for dear life in the back of a Mini Moke.

Litigation loss

The Litigation departments of Philip & Mitros and Mildrens are likely to be depleted in the near future by certain elevations to barristerial heights.

Pour quoi?

Former musician Alistair Wyvill is taking leave of absence in October to study law in London. Knowledge of the law has not previously been a problem for him.

Going home

Sandy McDonald is leaving Poveys in Alice Springs to renew his acquaintanceship with kilts.

Bar Act

The Queensland Bar took out the prize for the Outstanding Act at the Conference of Law Societies in Alice Springs. The Act involved an altercation with a hitherto open glass door. A number of overzealous security types were eventually placated.

Reunited

Danny Masters, after practising in Darwin, Alice Springs and Adelaide, has left Poveys and been reunited with his former partners Giles and Farquhar at Cridlands.

Meaty job

Peter Anderson of the "Deaths In" team of the Department of Law, having dealt with Custody and Hospitals, has moved to Abattoirs.

Accolades, but...

Which Mock Trial Magistrate told a would-be barrister that she would make either an excellent actress or an excellent advocate and that the only thing holding her back was her junior barrister?

Opening?

The new Supreme Court building will hopefully be opened in July. The question is which year?

Moving story

The Legal Aid Commission is not moving to the Corporate Affairs Commission building at this stage -- Treasury appears unwilling to pay for the move and obviously prefers paying rent.

Thanks DTC

Our thanks to the Darwin Turf Club for donating First Prize for the Trials and Tribulations quiz night/dinner dance. The prize is eight tickets into Derby Day on July 27 in the lead up to the Darwin Cup. We do, of course, have other prizes for the evening.
