

From 1 September 1992 mediation in social security and customs will apply to all Administrative Appeal Tribunal registries. Further extensions will be considered for implementation in March next year. The flow chart below illustrates how mediation fits into the Tribunal's pre-hearing process.

