

CALL TO ARMS

DARWIN. Sunday 25 July.

Wanted: a cricket team comprised of private practitioners to play public practitioners at 10.30am on 25 July at the Dinah Beach Oval.

Please register by faxing an expression of interest to the Society on fax 411623.

Details of rules (whether standard or modified), costs, refreshments, etc, will be forwarded to team members closer to the date.

Interested public practitioners should contact Bill Priestley on 897422.

It has been suggested that Craig McDermott (if he's out of hospital) may be recruited for the public side to regain match fitness.

The private side has sent a communique to Michael Slater asking if he can see his way clear to evening things up.

That resulted in a slight spat between those who wanted Slater and those who would prefer Shane Warne.

In any event, the match will proceed with or without a star-studded international lineup.

CALL TO DINNER

His Honour Justice Brennan of the High Court will address Law Society dinners in Darwin and Alice Springs later this month.

The Darwin dinner will be on Saturday 24 July and the Alice dinner on Tuesday 27 July.

Details of venues and prices will be disseminated to practitioners shortly.

Justice Brennan will also address law students at the University on Monday 26 July.

His topic will be: Why do we need Courts?
