Attention

All NT Law Society members

All 1994/95 memberships of The Law Society of the NT has expired as of June 30, 1995.

A renewal membership kit has been sent to all practitioners, articulated clerks, law students and other people associated with the legal profession. This will include an application form for membership or associate membership and a Member Services Discount flyer for your information.

The Law Society has retained some of its current member discounts and has secured several new goods and services, particularly for Society members in Alice Springs. Many practitioners have found Member Services discounts beneficial — both personally and for their business. Some of the more popular services include the BP Plus Fuelcard and the Qantas Australian Airlines deal, offering generous discounts on domestic and international flights.

Contact The Law Society to obtain more information on Member Services discounts. Any suggestions from members are always welcome.
