Westpac
appoints solicitor in major role

Westpac Banking Corporation has appointed solicitor Bettie McNee as its Group Secretary and General Counsel.

Ms McNee has been the Canberra managing partner of Freehill, Hollingdale and Page for the past five years and National Coordination Partner since 1993.

She has a strong private sector background including extensive dealings with government across a broad spectrum of private sector interests and has provided general corporate and commercial law advice to Canberra-based clients and statutory authorities.

Ms McNee will take up her new position in late August and will report directly to the managing director.
