Supreme Court Library News

The staff of the Supreme Court Library would like to wish you a merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year. The Library will be closed between Christmas and New Year, but will open again on 2 January 1997. There will be 2 staff on duty in January as Ravi is going to Brisbane and Frieda is going to Melbourne.

New CD-ROMs

We have received copies of several CD-ROM products on approval. Come to the Library and help assess their usefulness.

Titles recently received are:

- Australian Encyclopaedia of Forms and Precedents
- Victorian Legislation
- Index to Legal Periodicals
- New Zealand Law Reports

New Indexes

We have recently completed the input of 1995 data to the cumulative indexes to NT judgments. Contact the Library for the information flyer with detailed information.

Memorabilia

Send us your tired, your crinkled, your rumped....

The Law Society wishes to build up its collection of memorabilia, in particular photographic records of the profession in the Territory.

These are wanted not only for publication in Balance, as items of general interest, but also as an archived reminder of the profession's progress.

Please contact Janet Neville at the Society if you have any mementos for which you'd like to find a final resting place; they will be treated with respect.

Prevent Domestic Violence Handbook

Working together to prevent Domestic Violence in the Northern Territory by Sally Gearing and Judith Harrison is now available from the Law Society of the Northern Territory at $35.00 each.

Please make cheques payable to the Law Society Public Purposes Trust.

LEADR

Patrick McIntyre, chair of the NT Chapter of LEADR, announces the launch of the group on 15 November 1996.

Reflecting the multi-professional nature of LEADR nationally, the local executive includes five lawyers and three non-lawyers.
