London School of Economics: International Summer Programme

The London School of Economics and politics is one of the most highly respected universities in the world.

Students from around the world are able to share this tradition of academic excellence through the LSE Summer Programmes.

In 1997 the university offers thirty-seven courses in the disciplines of finance, international studies, law, management and media communications.

Legal courses to be run over the programme are:

Introduction to English Law

- three weeks of intensive study designed to cover the main aspects of the English legal system and English law.
