Call for Abstracts

The Winter School in the Sun, an intersectoral school and conference conducted by the Alcohol and Drug Foundation, Queensland, is calling for abstracts for papers and workshops for its annual forum to be held 6-9 July in Brisbane.

The theme of the school/conference is "Addictions: Challenges and Changes and applications to present a paper/workshop/seminar are invited from all sectors and professions with an interest in this area.

Priority will be given to applications that aim to enhance the professional skills and knowledge of participants. All sessions are expected to be based on sound research or policy rationale.

The Winter School in the Sun has developed an international reputation and provides professional training and development for specialist and mainstream workers in the alcohol and drug arena.

A copy of the brochure is available for consultation at the Law Society.
