

AIJA Conference to Consider Court Process Reform

The Australian Institute of Judicial Administration has released the preliminary program for its July conference in Brisbane.

The national conference, to be held on 3 and 4 July at the Heritage Hotel in Brisbane, has as its theme, Reforming Court Process for Law Enforcement – New Directions.

Seed funding for the conference has been supplied by the Commonwealth Attorney-General's Department, and the conference has been developed under the auspices of a steering committee which has included representatives of the Heads of Commonwealth Law Enforcement Agencies group, the Law Council of Australia, the judiciary and the AIJA.

Mr Michael Hill, distinguished Queen's Council from Britain will be the guest speaker and will give a paper on international developments, recent innovations in common law jurisdictions and civil law jurisdictions. The federal Attorney-General, Daryl Williams will deliver the opening address.

The Director of NTLAC, Richard Coates, in his capacity as Director of National legal Aid, will take part in the first session of the conference, which aims to identify problems.

Later sessions will look at the international experience and at finding solutions.

Further enquiries about the conference can be made on tel: 03 9347 6600; the Law Society has copies of registration forms.

FAMILY LAW LIBRARY

Information that's always on time

The Family Law Library has been a valuable reference source for many years. But its value is only as good as the currency of its information. CCH prides itself in the prompt reporting it is now able to provide in this service.

The CCH Family Law Library is dedicated to offering timely, accurate information. Prompt up-to-date reporting is provided on:

- ◆ Family Court decisions
- ◆ Important legislative developments
- ◆ News and analysis of significant High Court decisions
- ◆ Current and comprehensive commentary on topical issues
- ◆ News from the family court, including Practice Directions and appointments of new Judges.

Join the growing band of lawyers who demand and get timely and accurate Family Law reference information.

Order now on 1 300 300 224

Creating Value for Professionals

11041 BAL 6/98