

New Wines for October

Exciting new wines to be released in October - a triumph of style and substance.

Southcorp Wines are introducing fresh, vibrant new wines that ooze style and sophistication. With its bold packaging it is sure to catch your eye.

Soho Chardonnay Verdelho is an exciting combination, bringing together the zestiness of Verdelho with the soft fruit flavours of Chardonnay

Soho Shiraz Chardonnay, yes, that's right! Shiraz Chardonnay is a delicious light fruity wine that is ideally served chilled. Light red wines are definitely a wine of the future.

Thirsty fish Chardonnay Brut is a decadent and indulgent sparkling wine that looks back to a time when a night out was a fun filled romantic adventure. Thirsty Fish is a Chardonnay blend that is a non-intimidating, fresh, easy drinking sparkling wine with its eye-catching salmon pink frosted bottle and dapper logo, you'll find this hard to resist. Thirsty Fish will not be available until November.

34 S Chardonnay Semillion Sauvignon Blanc, this is a contemporary wine style featuring enticing soft fruit flavour, a touch of subtle oak and a fresh, crisp finish.

34 S Four Vines, this is a light fruit driven red wine that is also ideally served chilled. Largely sourced from the premium wine growing regions of the Coonawarra, Barossa Valley and McLaren Vale.

With its elegant packaging and distinctive name, this is destined to stand out.

Seaview Gull Rock is a blend of premium sparkling grape varieties and is rich and complex in the Seaview tradition.

HEADNOTE REPORTERS

Is anyone interested in preparing headnotes for the NT Law Reports?

The NTLR's are the authorised reports in the NT and accordingly headnotes are approved by the Supreme Court. Cases can be allocated according to your area of practice or (as people often prefer) in another field.
