New Secretariat Staff Member

The dulcet tones you will be hearing at the end of the Law Society's telephone line are those of our new staff member, Karli Hicks.

Karli, a recent arrival from Western Australia, has worked in the legal, mining and accountancy areas and will ably fill the shoes of long-time Law Society staffer, Fiona Halliday who has moved to the public sector.

In addition to possessing impressive office skills, Karli is a keen and accomplished player, coach and supporter of men's and women's rugby and touch football and has played touch at a state level. (Existing staff do not intend to compete with her on this front.)
