

Member discounts for a trip to Sydney

Law Society Member Services Guide

The Law Society offers its members a range of discounts from supporting territory and interstate businesses.

This month we are pleased to welcome Lido Accommodation to our member services scheme. Lido and Qantas have both offered special rates for members this month, offering travel and accommodation for Sydney at a discounted price.

If you can't take up the offer, watch out for the Member Services Guide 2000, which will reveal the businesses who have recently joined our scheme to offer the NT legal profession the best deals in town.

Qantas will take you there..

Qantas has fares to Sydney as low as $729 for travel prior 17th September or $769 from 18th September onwards*.

Law Society members receive a further discount on the above fares and any other domestic or international fare (including some packages).

This can save you hundreds of dollars..so take advantage of this agreement!

To receive these commercially negotiated discounts (and to enquire about rebate levels) contact the Law Society. Simple paperwork must be completed prior to receiving the Qantas discount. Retrospective discounts will not be given.

Always feel free to contact Mandy Bluett at Qantas on 8982 3386 for any advise, or you can catch me at the annual Law Society Law Week Luncheon (The one never far away from the champagne and rarely sitting quietly on my own in a corner!).

Members can phone the following Qantas local numbers for assistance with their travel requirements:
Domestic: 8982 3361, International 8982 3364 or 8982 3365

Ensure that you identify yourself as a member of the Law Society and have completed your application through the Member Services Scheme.
