

Leaving, but definitely 'staying alive'

Former Vice President of the Law Society, Alan Lindsay, is leaving Darwin for Adelaide after fifteen years.

Alan will be missed for all his hard work for the profession through the Law Society, particularly as the convenor of the Access to Justice Committee.

The Committee has produced a report on delay in the civil jurisdictions and is consulting with the judiciary and the profession regarding recommendations to improve case flow in Territory courts.

It wasn't a one way street between Alan and the Law Society though.

Criminal Lawyers
Association of the NT

EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

Followed by light refreshments.

Roma Bar, Cavenagh St.
Darwin.

Wednesday 15 December
1999 at 5pm sharp.

Principal business:
Election of a new president.

Former president Jon Tippet has tendered his resignation as president of CLANT following his election as the President of the Law Society of the NT. His resignation was accepted with regret at a meeting of the CLANT Committee on 16 November 1999.

One year he shamelessly dropped all his dubious dress standards to pursue his now wife at a Law Society ball.

As a senior and respected member of the profession his talents will be great loss to the legal community of the Territory.

According to the profession there will be other things about Alan they will miss.

"What about his encyclopaedic knowledge of crap music?" said one colleague who declined to be named.

"A question like: 'Who sang Dead Skunk in the Middle of the Road?' is a snack for him."

This interest and his appearance contributed to another colleague remarking: "He really is the fourth Bee Gee."

Cridlands are keen to point out that his abilities will not be entirely lost to the Territory profession and he will be back from time to time.

Perhaps his move to South Australia should be seen as a national takeover bid as Cridlands opens a branch at the other end of "the track". Viva the Northern Territory!

Best wishes to Alan, Alison and family.

(By the way Alan says Dead Skunk in the Middle of the Road was sung by Loudon Wainwright III)

MANDATORY SENTENCING: THE T-SHIRT

A STEAL FOR THIS CHRISTMAS!

A limited edition, 6 colours
100% cotton, $20 each

Available at Roma Bar
31 Cavenagh St
or send cheque to
Green Ant,
2 Gardenia Street
Nightcliff NT 0810
or Fax Credit Card details to 08 8948 3001

Name.....
Address.....
Visa/Mastercard/Bankcard
Expiry Date.....