

People in the law

Frieda Evans is the librarian at the Supreme Court in Darwin

Education: Bachelor of Arts (University of Western Australia), Graduate Diploma in Librarianship (CCA), Graduate Diploma in Business Administration (NTU).

Why are you here? I enjoy Darwin's lifestyle and climate, especially outdoors camping with the scouts.

What do you like and dislike most about being a lawyer? I am not a lawyer, but some of them do know some good jokes and have a good sense of humour.

Your favourite restaurant in the NT and why? The Mediterranean (Palmerston) - who can resist the sticky date pudding?

Your ideal holiday? Touring in Australia with my family and my son's godfather.

Complete this sentence. I couldn't live without... Clean water.

If you were down to your last $50 what would you buy? A good pair of walking shoes.

What book are you reading at the moment? A Different Turf by Jon Cleary.

Tony Morgan is a partner at Morgan Buckleys in Alice Springs

Education: LLb Hons (University of Sydney).

Why are you here? I believe that the Northern Territory offers opportunities in career and lifestyle that exceed other parts of Australia.

What do you like most and dislike the most about being a lawyer? Striving to achieve good outcomes for clients and bank managers respectively.

Your favourite restaurant in the NT and why? Puccinis - Res ipsa loquitur.

Your ideal holiday? Down hill skiing anywhere with snow.

Complete this sentence. I couldn't live without... oxygen.

If you were down to your last $50 what would you buy? A carton of Crown Lager for myself and not to over do it, a glass of sherry for my wife.

What book are you reading at the moment? The Magic Pudding (to my son Jack).

Britt Romani Lardelli is a solicitor with Hunt and Hunt in Darwin

Education: Northern Territory University Bachelor of Arts/ Bachelor of Laws (2A Hons).

Why are you here? I was too young to know 'where' and 'why' when my parents decided to come to Darwin and haven't yet found anywhere I would prefer to live.

What do you most like and dislike about being a lawyer? Dislike: that silence of a few seconds when you tell people you are a lawyer. Like: It can be a useful and productive set of skills.

Your favourite restaurant in the NT and why? Guisseppe - habit.

Your ideal holiday? One of those mega resorts in the middle of nowhere where the pool is three times the size of an olympic pool.

Complete this sentence. I couldn't live without ... sleep.

If you were down to your last $50 what would you buy? Food.

What book are you reading at the moment? Cavedweller by Dorothy Allison.