2001 World Congress on Family Law and the Rights of Children and Youth 19 - 22 September 2001 Bath, England

Held under the patronage of H.E Mary Robinson, United Nation High Commissioner for Human Rights, this congress aims to create an international network of lawyers and associated professionals working for the protection of children, to be known as The Children's Protection Network.

The Network will be a permanent on-going, tightly managed structure, bringing together lawyers, lawyer educators, lawyer organisations and associated professionals in a cooperative effort to provide assistance to children through its twofold focus of legal advocacy and education.
