

John Lawrence has been elected as President of the Criminal Lawyers Association of the Northern Territory.

John has been a resident of the Northern Territory since 1986. He was a Crown Prosecutor for five years until 1992 when he took up the position of Senior Criminal Lawyer at the North Australian Aboriginal Legal Aid Service (NAALAS). He was Solicitor in Charge at NAALAS from 1995 to 1997.

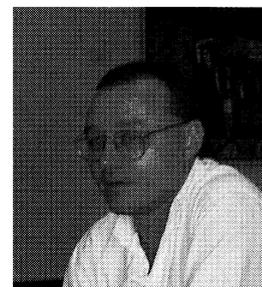

Since May 1997 John has practised as a barrister at the independent bar in Darwin. His chambers are in James Muirhead Chambers on the Esplanade.

Unusually, he has a degree of Bachelor of Laws from not one but two universities, the University of Strathclyde at Glasgow in Scotland, and the University of Melbourne in Victoria.

He is married to Carmel and they have two children.

From left: Mr Rex Wild, Ms Suzan Cox, Mr Jon Tippett, Mr John Lawrence, Ms Liz Morris (kneeling), Mr Jacek Karczewski, Ms Jenny Blokland, Mr Matthew Bracks, Mr Richard Coates.

New president of the Criminal Lawyers Association of the NT, Mr John Lawrence.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR BARRISTERS

An Income Protection policy designed to meet the unique needs of barristers in private practice

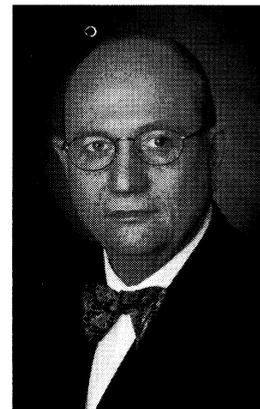

Endorsed by the Bar Association of QLD

Features include:

- Own occupation definition for disablement
- Guaranteed agreed benefit on claim
- Lifetime benefit (optional)
- Benefits on claim indexed to age 65
- 24 hour worldwide cover
- Partial disablement benefit
- Many other worthwhile benefits

If you would like further particulars on:

- Comprehensive Income Protection
- Trauma Insurance covering 32 conditions
- Life insurance including own occupation definition for Total and Permanent Disablement benefit
- Professional Indemnity Insurance
- Self Employed Persons Superannuation that is simple and cost effective

Contact me personally without obligation
Telephone 07 3362 2768
Facsimile 07 3362 2885
Email: lasserv@squirrel.com.au
Visiting Darwin regularly

SUNCORP-METWAY LTD

Major Sponsor
Australian Bar Association Conference
New York, July 2000

PETER STEELE - Corporate Agent
New Ideas - Better Solutions
Providing a committed personalised service to the profession