

SERVING THE COMMUNITY OR

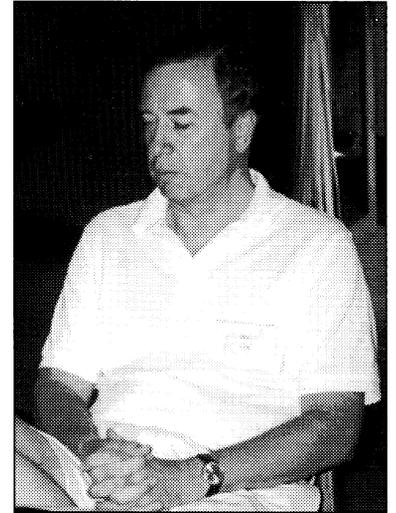

Twenty-two speakers from around Australia and Indonesia presented papers on criminal justice matters to participants, including keynote addresses from Chief Justice John Doyle and Justice Mark Weinberg.

CLANT President John Lawrence welcomed guests to the conference

NT Solicitor General Tom Pauling QC officially opened the conference

Chief Justice John Doyle of the Supreme Court of South Australia

Richard Ackland presented "Adventures of a reptile on the justice beat"

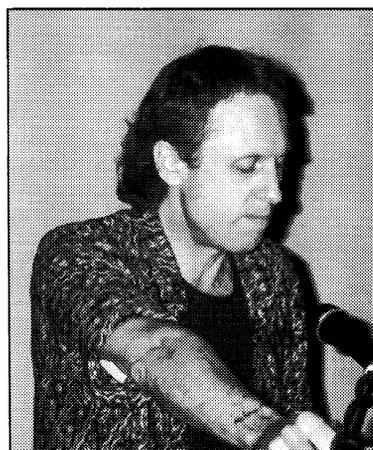

Justice Steve Bailey of the Supreme Court of the Northern Territory

Elizabeth Fullerton SC from the NSW Bar

Justice Trevor Riley spoke on "Ethics and the criminal defence lawyer"

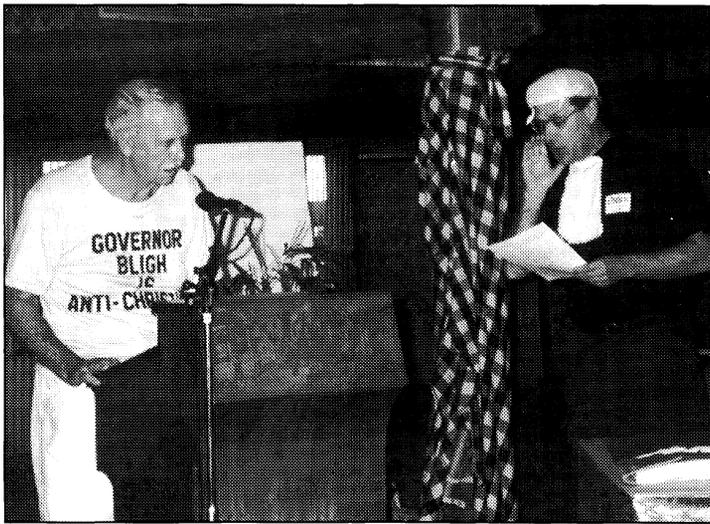

David Dalrymple presented a paper on forensic DNA evidence

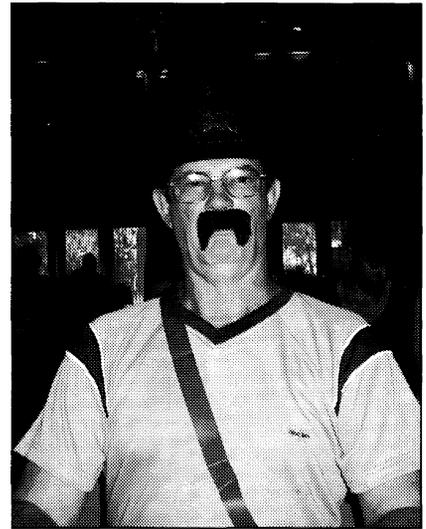

Carmen Eckhoff, Forensic Biologist from NT Forensic Services

GIVING THE COMMUNITY A SERVE?

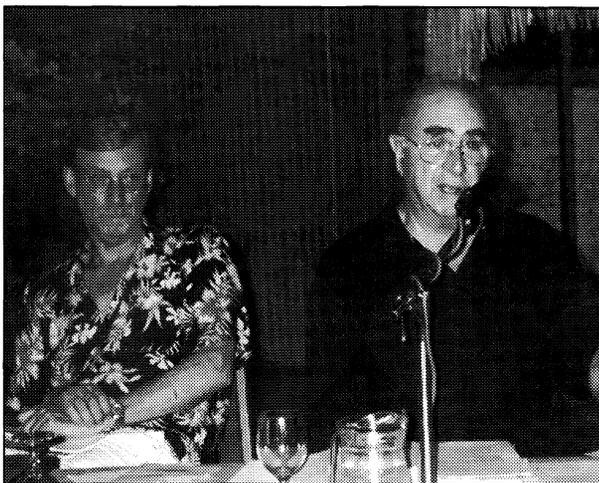

From role-playing characters in a play reading to sipping margueritas at the conference cocktail party delegates from every state and Territory in Australia (except Tasmania) enjoyed all aspects of the Bali conference.

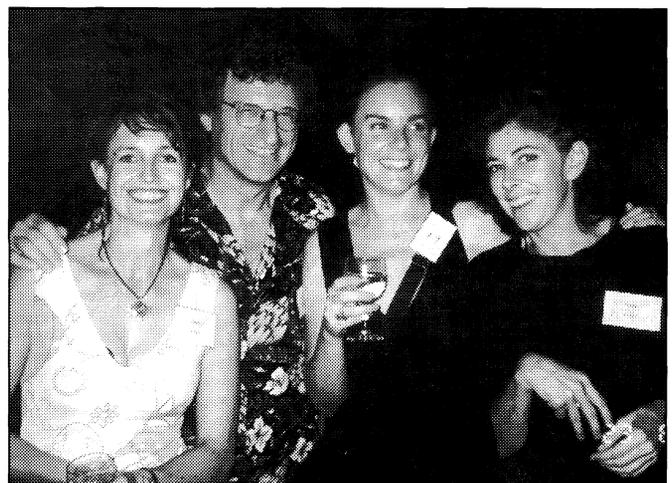

Austin Asche and Richard Refshauge role play "The Eureka Trials" — a play reading presented by Rex Wild QC

Justice Dean Mildren — who won an award for playing Henry Goodenough

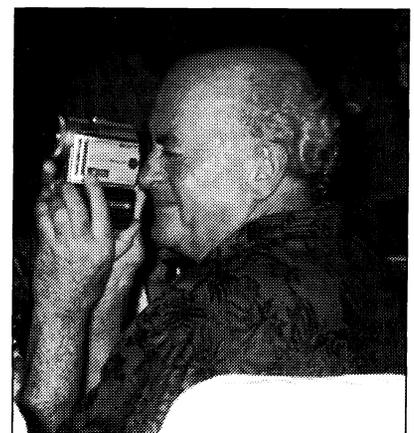

Bill Morgan-Payler QC and Ralph Nader QC spoke to the conference about the victim and the criminal justice system

Helen Spowart, Charles Rozencwajg, Julie Condon and Louise Bennett at the conference cocktail party

The DPP contingent: Rex Wild QC, Peter Tiffin, Jack Karczewski, Glen Dooley, Peter Thomas and Grant Hayward

Ian Barker QC capturing the moment