

THE TRIALS OF THE CENTURY

Sgt Rod Strong from NT Neighbourhood Watch with a dismantled Judge Croc.

Russell Perry from Summary Prosecutions role played Alf Pacino watched over by a volunteer policeman from NT Neighbourhood Watch.

In Darwin 50 members of the community came along to the Supreme Court to learn about sentencing. The participants were divided into three groups to discuss the appropriate sentence for Lara Croft, Tom Raider and Alf Pacino.

The participants made the most of the opportunity to ask questions of presiding judge Justice Dean Mildren about how and why he came up with the verdicts he did.

Magistrate Vince Luppino, third from left, adjudicated the Katherine Trial which was attended by 15 people from around the Katherine area.

Participants at the Katherine Trial enjoyed morning tea and lunch in the foyer of the Katherine Court House in First Street.
