

DARWIN

LAW SOCIETY NORTHERN TERRITORY

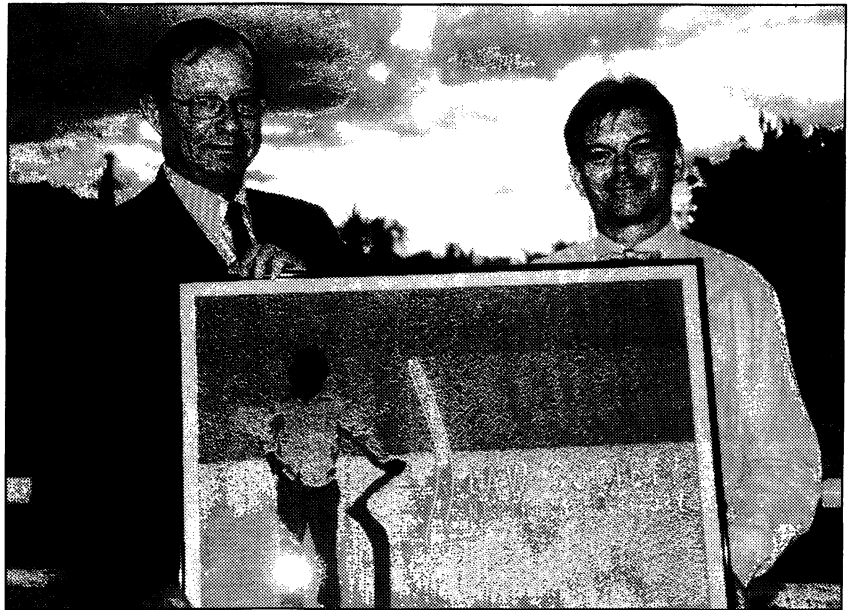

COUNCIL WELCOMES THE HON DARYL WILLIAMS MP

The Commonwealth Attorney-General Mr Daryl Williams MP met with members of the Law Society Northern Territory Council and other guests at a reception in Darwin on Monday 9 April 2001.

Mr Williams was welcomed to the Territory by Law Society President Mr Jon Tippett who presented the Attorney-General with a gift of a print incorporating the Law Society's logo.

Mr Williams thanked the Society for the gift and took the opportunity to meet with all members of Council present.

Council members were joined by Chief Justice Brian Martin, Director of Public Prosecutions Rex Wild QC and Australian Government Solicitor Rick Andruszko.

Happy 1st Birthday to the Aboriginal Interpreter Service

The Aboriginal Interpreter Service celebrated its first birthday with 100 guests at a morning tea attended by the Commonwealth Attorney-General Daryl Williams. A report on the Service and its achievements over the last year will be included in May Balance.

Staff from the Aboriginal Interpreter Service were thanked for their efforts by the Commonwealth Attorney General. From left, Karlene Savage, the Hon Daryl Williams MP, Colleen Rosas and Nora Kempster.

- Youth Challenge human rights.....14
- Students meet NT Young Lawyers..... 14
- Life as an NTU law student in 2001..... 15