Study postgraduate law at a leading Australian university

The University of Queensland (UQ) is one of Australia's premier teaching and research institutions. A member of the elite Universitas 21, UQ is committed to international best practice with qualifications that are recognised worldwide. UQ enrolls around 33,000 students from a diverse range of countries and, located in the nation's sunshine state, also offers students a great lifestyle opportunity.

UQ's TC Beirne School of Law offers a quality Master of Laws program for law graduates who wish to gain advanced legal expertise and research skills.

■ Master of Laws (LLM)

A one year program of full-time study (or part-time equivalent) by coursework. Students have the option to specialise in the areas of Dispute Resolution, Intellectual Property and Corporate/Commercial law.

■ Flexible delivery options

Many LLM courses are offered intensively over a 4-5 day period and some are available online. Semester, intensive and online courses can be combined towards the LLM program.

To find out how the TC Beirne School of Law can put you a world ahead phone (07) 3365 2206, email tcblaw@law.uq.edu.au or visit www.law.uq.edu.au
