

And then there was one...

John Lawrence left James Muirhead Chambers late last year, now two others are moving on.

Muster Room has heard Steve Southwood QC and Jon Tippett QC are moving back to William Forster Chambers once that chambers moves into a (we understand) refurbished Customs House (diagnolly opposite the Darwin City Council).

That will leave John Waters QC on his own at James Muirhead Chambers and reconfirm William Forster Chambers as the largest in the NT with about 15 barristers at last count.

Wow, what a team!

The Chief Justice's XI for the Law Week cricket match (see story previous page) is a pretty strong line-up. Captained by Mildren J (a keen and reportedly talented cricketer), the team also includes: Master Coulehan, Riley J, Roberta McMurtrie (associate to Riley J), Trigg SM, Rex Wild QC, Wallace SM, Luppino SM, Daniel Garton, Chris Rowe, Jessica Bates, Duncan Maclean, Ben Wild and Jennifer Laurence.

No word from the LSNT President's camp yet on their team members but MR understands Morrie also has some "talent" in the ranks. Should be a good game!
