

Joining the Toohey team

As of 1 February 2004, Jack Lewis will commence practice at John Toohey Chambers.

His new contact details are as follows:

Jack Lewis, Barrister,
John Toohey Chambers
Unit 1/18 Knuckey Street Darwin NT
Mobile: 0403 368 924
email: jacklewis@bigpond.com

Relocation

Priestley Walsh has moved premises to Suite G19, First Floor, Paspalis Centrepoint, 48-50 The Mall Darwin.

The PO Box, phone and facsimile numbers all remain the same.

New Admissions

Congratulations to Robert Welfare, Clair Wong (Hunt and Hunt), Catherine Unger (Ward Keller), David Robertson (Miwatj Aboriginal Legal Service, Nhulunbuy) and Juan Dominguez (Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions Alice Springs) who were recently admitted to the Supreme Court in the Northern Territory.

Brief new admissions

At his first official appearance at the bench, Chief Justice Brian Martin brought a new flavour to the admissions proceedings.

The normal process of presenting a personal history of each applicant was skipped over and the applicants were out in record time.

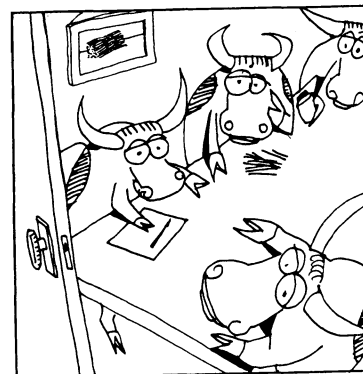

The Chief Justice has since announced that he will be reintroducing this practice into admissions proceedings.

Legal pub rock?

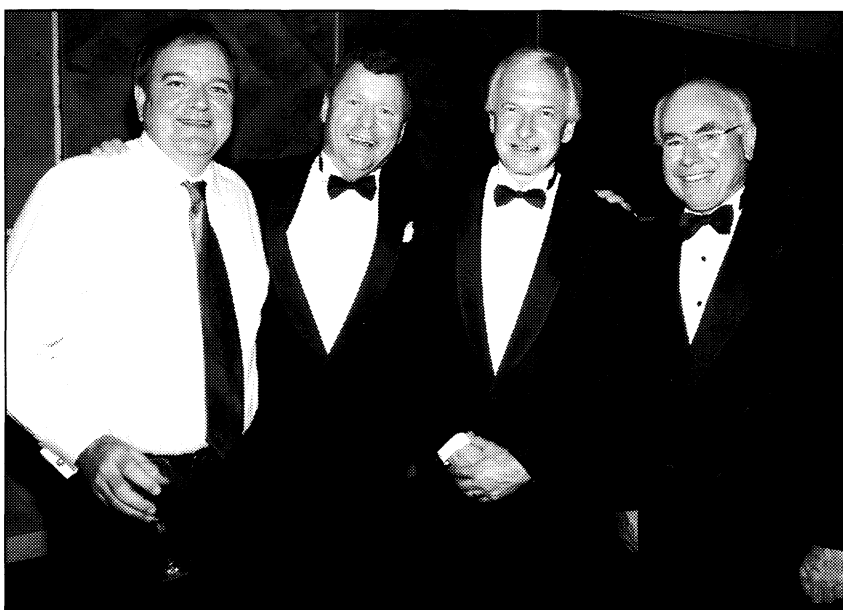

MR hears that around 15 April 2004 Darwin will see a tour by Adelaide pub band DIX.

By itself that information may not seem interesting, however the band's guitarist is Michael Hutton, a partner with Lynch Meyer in Adelaide.

The Muster Room

You can find out more about Michael from the Lynch Meyer website.

Alaistair Sheilds and friends at a celebratory dinner to mark the opening of the Alice Springs to Darwin railway.

Dinner to mark the end of Roberta McMurtrie's term as Justice Riley's Associate. Held in January 2004 at Thailicious.