2007 CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CONFERENCE AND DINNER

A major conference on constitutional law, the sixth in a series, will be held at the Art Gallery of NSW on Friday 16 February 2007.

The event is organised by the Gilbert + Tobin Centre of Public Law with the support of the Australian Association of Constitutional Law.

The conference will focus on developments in the High Court and other Australian courts in 2006 and beyond.

It will be addressed by leading practitioners, government lawyers, judges and academics. Our 2006 event, looking at the cases and developments of 2005, attracted over 250 participants.

The papers can be found on our website at www.gtcentre.unsw.edu.au.

The conference will be followed by dinner at NSW Parliament House hosted by NSW Attorney-General The Hon Bob Debus. The speaker at the dinner will be Justice JD Heydon, of the High Court of Australia. By popular demand, there will again be a High Court trivia quiz.

Speakers at the conference will review the key themes and statistics of the Court's work in 2006 as well as recent major decisions, such as Forge v ASIC, Theophanous v The Commonwealth, and XZY v Commonwealth. There will be a panel discussion on the Workchoices case and the concluding session will focus on the prospects and politics of constitutional change.

The cost of the event is $381 for the conference and $99 for the dinner (total $480). If you register for both by 22 December 2006 you can do so at the combined early-bird rate of $436.

Please inquire for rates for academics and non-profit organisations. To register, or to receive the full conference brochure (with credit card option), please email gtcentre@unsw.edu.au, contact Belinda McDonald on (02) 9385 2257 or see www.gtcentre.unsw.edu.au.
