

Marsh Law Week Cricket Match and Family Fun Day

A day before the official commencement of Law Week 2008, the Chief Justice's XI, captained by Joe Buckley, were victorious in the Marsh Law Week Cricket Match for the second year in a row, against the Law Society President's XI.

Sunday 25 May 2008, Dinah Beach Oval

Thanks to our sponsors, Marsh, this year incorporated a family fun day. A jumping castle, face painting and children's activities had the spectators entertained.

The Chief Justice's XI and President's XI relax after the Marsh Law Week Cricket Match

The cricket match provided a great opportunity to socialise Secretariat 'fairies' face painting

Jason Schoolmeester and Gemma Lake

Michael Chin's grandchildren enjoy the jumping castle

The Chief Justice congratulates his winning captain, Joe Buckley