Balance survey - The results are in!

The Law Society distributed Balance readership surveys to all subscribers to obtain feedback to guide a major revamp of the magazine, which has existed in its current format since 2000.

Specifically, the survey aimed to determine which aspects of the current Balance readers like, features they thought had potential but needed further attention, items that could be discontinued, along with additional ideas to improve the upgraded version.

The majority of respondents suggested the following aspects are of important in the new

Balance:

- Use of colour
- More humour
- Regular profiles on people in the profession
- Using the website more - If you have a login and password for the new website, then you can access electronic copies of Balance. You can also access full versions of edited speeches on the website at www.lawsocietynt.asn.au.
- General appearance
- More social photos.

If you have any questions regarding the revamp of Balance and the changes due to occur, please email publicrelations@lawsocnt.asn.au.
