

Game

2011 Marsh C

Sunday 14 A

Following two aborted attempts and a run up to the annual President's match with accusations of forfeited matches, rumours of an attempt to encourage loyalty to change their allegiance, a victory of a m

It was a delighted Chief Justice Trevor Rile where the trophy was being displayed, and Honour promptly scooped up the trophy with a distinct look of glee.

It was noted during the presentation of the luck had finally turned following some not represented on His Honour's team. Law Society President Matthew Storey fortune in reclaiming the trophy for Honours well for being reinstated.

Grateful thanks go to Marsh for this annual event, team captain and Rex Wild QC, umpire to Gregory Brautigam Club for kindly kit again

On!

Cricket Match

August 2011

and weeks of banter and sledging in the XI challenge to the Chief Justice's XI, the, pitch sabotage to avoid defeat, and members of the Society's supporter base here 12 runs was finally declared.

who made a lightening sprint to the table as soon as the game was concluded. His and paraded it around the gathered crowd the trophy, that whilst the Chief Justice's the humiliating defeats, the bench was am this year except for the Master... they wished his successor every good for the Society in 2012, and their d into the judicial team.

for their continued support of captains Michael Grant QC, Brian LaPorte, and m of Darwin Cricket supplying the n.

