EMAIL SCAMS STILL DOING THE ROUNDS

Below is another example of the type of email scams that are doing the rounds. You can report scams to ACCC via the website: scamwatch.gov.au. You can also report email scams to the Australian Communications and Media Authority (for email scams) or the police in the event of fraud theft or other crimes. Contact your bank if you suspect transactions. We welcome reports here at the Society and this is a timely reminder to be vigilant.
