EOI – Youth Justice Advisory Committee

The Law Society is seeking expressions of interest from experienced practitioners who wish to be on the Youth Justice Advisory Committee.

The functions of the Youth Justice Advisory Committee are set out in Section 204 of the Youth Justice Act 2005 as follows:

- monitors and evaluates the administration and operation of the Act;
- advises the Minister on issues relevant to the administration of youth justice, including the planning, development, integration and implementation of government policies and programs concerning youth;
- collects, analyses and provides the Minister with information relating to issues and policies concerning youth justice; and
- carries out any other functions imposed by the Act or as the Minister directs.

Interested practitioners should send their expressions of interest to the Society's CEO, Kelvin Strange, by COB 18 March 2020.
