PRO BONO CLEARING HOUSE CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

The aim of the Society's Pro Bono Clearing House (PBCH) is to connect members of the public needing pro bono legal assistance with NT legal practitioners able to provide that assistance.

Whether you're a new lawyer wanting practical skills to build your career or a senior lawyer looking to re-energise yourself in an area of law that's important to you—volunteering your time to provide assistance to those that are disadvantaged and cannot afford legal support is a fulfilling, valuable experience.

An hour out of your week providing access to justice may well change someone's circumstances for the better.

To find out more about the PBCH and how you can help make a difference, please email:

Manager Regulatory Services

Full-time, 6–12 month contract position – Darwin

The Law Society Northern Territory (Society) is seeking to appoint a Manager Regulatory Services to carry out the work necessary for the Society to fulfil the exercise of its regulatory functions under the Legal Profession Act.

This is a unique opportunity to make an important and meaningful contribution to the legal profession and the general community.

Responsibilities include

- Acting as Solicitor on the record in matters involving the Society or in which the Society has a statutory right of appearance in the Supreme Court and Legal Practitioners Disciplinary Tribunal
- Prepare briefing papers for Council and the Ethics Committee on regulatory matters
- Oversight of the management and investigation of complaints and enquiries about legal practitioners' conduct
- Development of policies and procedures to facilitate the transparent and accountable delivery of the Society's regulatory functions

Requirements

- Admission in an Australian Supreme Court as a Lawyer
- 5 years of post-admission legal experience, preferably specialising in litigation
- Current holder of an unrestricted practising certificate or eligibility to obtain a NT unrestricted practising certificate

In joining us, you would be stepping into a vibrant, professional and inclusive group of people who pride ourselves on the standard of service provided. The Society team is cooperative and inclusive and seeks to ensure that team members feel supported and appreciated. The wealth of experience amongst its ranks ensures that there are opportunities to grow, learn and upskill.

To view the position description and apply, please go to the Society's website or click here.
