

EDITORIAL PREFACE

This issue of the Macarthur Law Review sees the departure of the founding editor John Gooley. John commenced work within the Faculty of Business & Technology at UWS Macarthur in 1989 and was instrumental in the creation of the Faculty of Law in 1995. From the inception of the Faculty, John had expressed a strong commitment to research and scholarly activities. This commitment found expression in a number of ways, most noticeably in his prodigious output of commercial law texts. However, John was also keen that the Faculty should facilitate the research of others by publication of this law review.

We would like to dedicate this issue to our colleague, thank him for his contribution and wish him every success in all future endeavours.
