DEPARTMENT OF DEFENCE

Applications are invited from suitably qualified men and women for a position with the Royal Australian Naval college, located at HMAS CRESWELL, Jervis Bay.

The successful applicant will be required to administer, control and develop the RANC library. In performing the above tasks it will be necessary to: attend conferences and seminars as required, report on the adequacy of the collection to meet user's needs, liaise with Heads of Departments and external authorities and provide a computer based information service.

The successful applicant must possess an appropriate degree or diploma together with training in Librarianship which qualifies for admission to Registration by the Library Association of Australia; or a recognised course of integrated study in Librarianship and academic subjects, or other appropriate qualifications.

Note: Persons who have not completed a degree or diploma studies listed above but who are qualified for admission to Associate Membership of Library Association of Australia under the conditions applying to 31 December 1980, and who are able to produce evidence of experience, additional study or personal aptitude may apply.

It is desirable that applicants have at least 5 years library experience, preferably with some time spent in a Special library or as a reference librarian. Previous 'hands on' experience with DIALOG or ORBIT is also desirable.

To be eligible for permanent appointment applicants must be Australian citizens or British subjects with permanent resident status.

Applications, quoting duties No 24 and including a contact phone number, should be forwarded to:

TASMANIAN LIBRARY BOARD

Sir John Morris Research Grants

The Tasmanian Library Board invites applications for grants from individuals resident in Australia wishing to undertake research projects in the fields of archival, information, and library services.

The proposed research should be of relevance to library and/or archives services in Tasmania.

Applications for 1983 research grants close on 31 October 1982.

Application forms and further information may be obtained from:

The Secretary, Sir John Morris Research Committee, State Library of Tasmania,

The Australian National University

Applications are invited for the position of Head of the Science Division in the ANU Library.

The successful candidate will be responsible for advising the Librarian on all matters relating to the Science collection and services as required. These collections are located in the Library, J.G. Crawford building and six specialist libraries, totalling some 233,000 volumes.

The libraries of the Science Division serve the Research Schools of the ANU and the Science Departments of The Faculties. Particular emphasis is placed on liaison with academic staff particularly in the context of collection coordination, both within the University, through a series of advisory committees, and with the National Library and the CSIRO.

Applicants should possess a degree, preferably in the sciences, professional library qualifications and considerable administrative experience is desirable.
