

BACK TO BASICS — FACT OR FICTION?

(An occasional correction
of a wrong assumption)

The comment has been made that membership of the LAA has fallen drastically while the staff of the LAA has expanded enormously.

FACT: This is not true, although it may be true to say that the staff of the LAA has risen enormously since 1937 when the Australian Institute of Librarians began!

In fact, in the last ten years the number of staff has dropped from twelve to eleven. As well, there has been a change in emphasis in staffing from clerical to professional staff, so that with one less staff member the Association is in fact able to provide more service to members.

The staffing for 1975 and 1984 is as follows:

1975	1984
Executive Director	Executive Director
Executive Assistant	Assistant Executive Director
Industrial Information Officer	Industrial Information Officer
Publications Officer	Continuing Education Officer
Assistant Publications Officer	Publications Officer
Executive Director's Secretary	Assistant Publications Officer
Examinations Clerk	Executive Director's Secretary
Membership Clerks — 2	Membership Clerk
Membership Clerk — receipting	Bookkeeper
Bookkeeper	Typist
Typist	Receptionist

Jenny Adams
Executive Director

Literary Guide to Australia

A very substantial undertaking is at present underway — The Oxford Illustrated Literary Guide to Australia, for which the material is being gathered by the Association for the Study of Australian Literature (ASAL).

The finished book will contain 200,000 words with place entries on more than 600 localities, biographical information on nearly 1000 writers as well as maps and photographs.

A substantial amount of material has already been received and a printout of around 90,000 words produced, but more entries are required!

If you would like to contribute to this project in supplying information about particular areas and their literary connections, contact the co-ordinator for your state.

CHINKAPOOK (VIC.)

Wheat-farming town in the Mallee region of NW Victoria, near the Murray River and the NSW border, 70km W of Swan Hill, and 408km N of Melbourne.

John Shaw Neilson's father, John Neilson, farmed for a time at Chinkapook. When the mice plague of 1917 destroyed 50 bags of seed wheat, lost also were a number of Shaw Neilson's notebooks. Douglas Stewart lamented this occurrence in his poem 'The Mice of Chinkapook':

They bit their way through field and crop,
They ate the haystack to its top,
They crept into the house and took
The poet's notebook slice by slice,
The nibbling mice of Chinkapook.
