DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

The Medical Board of Queensland Pilot Profile-Centred Continuing Education Program in Central Queensland

LIBRARIAN A Rockhampton

Applications are invited for the position of Librarian for a Pilot Study of a new approach to Continuing Medical Education in Central Queensland to be conducted by the Medical Board of Queensland.

Applicants must possess a degree from a recognized tertiary institution.

The pilot study will be based at Rockhampton Hospital and will contain a small library, a terminal for access to Medlars and other data bases, a microcomputer and audio-visual teaching aids. Training in techniques of database access will be provided if required.

The study will be controlled by a Medical Co-ordinator and the Librarian will be the only other staff member.

The position of Librarian is a challenging one, as the Study involves the building up of an innovative approach to Continuing Medical Education based on new knowledge and modern technology. Duties will include assisting the Co-ordinator in designing and managing the information services in the Centre to meet practitioners' needs, and evaluating their effectiveness; establishing and maintaining computerised library files; assisting in the preparation of educational programmes and reports and performing secretarial duties for the Co-ordinator. The appointee will be responsible for the operations of the Centre when the Medical Co-ordinator is away travelling through the area. Keyboard skills are essential.

Salary Range: $18,860 to $24,094 per annum

The position will be effective for a period of two (2) years only unless otherwise determined.

Applications quoting reference number 842 V 84 and containing full particulars including the names of at least two referees, should be forwarded to the Vacancy Processing Officer, 6th Floor, Administration Building, Corner George and Elizabeth Streets, Brisbane, Queensland, 4000 by 20 August 1984.

Enquiries may be made with the Registrar, Medical Board of Queensland, 9th Floor, 280 Adelaide Street, Brisbane, 4000 (Telephone Number 227 5061). (M8800)
