DIVISION OF TECHNICAL AND FURTHER EDUCATION
COLLEGE OF TECHNICAL AND FURTHER EDUCATION SOUTH BRISBANE

LIBRARIAN A

General: The South Brisbane College of Technical and Further Education is one of the two inner city Colleges of Technical and Further Education, located across the Brisbane River from the commercial centre of Brisbane.

The College has eight major areas of activity — Ceramics, Commerce and Management, Electronics and Communications, Migrant Education, Extension Programmes, Marine Studies, Pre-employment and Trade (Aircraft Mechanics, Fitting [instrumentation], and Radio/Television Mechanics). The College also organizes Extension Programmes and caters not only for the recreational needs of the adults of Brisbane, but also for the Aboriginal and Islander Community and for those who have a low standard of literacy and numeracy.

The College library is a part of the Queensland TAFE Library Network which consists of 25 TAFE college libraries throughout Queensland. The Network's activity is co-ordinated by the State Resource Materials Centre in Brisbane. The Centre also provides central technical services for the entire Network as well as audio-visual production services.

Qualifications and Experience: Possession of a Degree from a recognised tertiary institution and an acceptable qualification in Librarianship.

Experience in reader services work in a post secondary institution, as well as knowledge of library collection development practices. Familiarity with the use of audio-visual learning resources is desirable.

Duties: The successful applicant will be required to assist the Senior College Librarian in organizing efficient and effective use of the library and its resources. Other duties include: carrying out administrative duties involved in the library's operation as required by the Senior College Librarian, participate in user education programmes and collection development activities, and represent the Senior Librarian in that person's absence.

Enquiries: Telephone Mr A. Cutts at State R.M.C. for TAFE on (07) 848 9248.

Salary: $19,353-$24,725 per annum (L-2), plus basic wage adjustments.

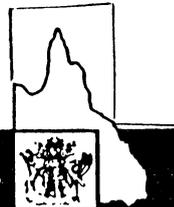

Conditions of Service: This position is a permanent position within the Queensland Public Service with four (4) weeks recreation leave, superannuation benefits, long service leave and accumulative sick leave.

Consequential vacancies in the Department of Education may be filled without further advertisement.

Applications: Applications quoting Reference Number 1075 V 85 and giving full particulars of name, address, telephone number, date of birth, marital status, copies of qualifications, details of professional experience, copies of testimonials and the names of two referees, should be forwarded to:
