

Information Services

Manager

$28,912 — $32,580

A challenging opportunity exists to develop and maintain, an expanded information service within our organisation. World Vision is a Christian relief and development agency whose 130 staff are helping to direct and support a $30 million program of child care, emergency relief, community development and leadership enhancement, in more than 80 countries.

The successful applicant will have the ability to develop and manage our information service that is integrated with institutional needs. The position also involves participation in relevant committees, working groups and task forces. Substantial practical experience in all areas of library practice and management in a special or research environment is essential with special competence in collection development, dissemination of information and information technology.

Applicants must be eligible for professional membership of the LAA and hold a degree from a recognised tertiary institution. A post-graduate degree in social science or librarianship is highly desirable.

Located in Melbourne the position offers an excellent opportunity for Christian service for someone who demonstrates an interest in Third World issues.

For further information contact Marilyn Hill on (03) 699 8522 or (008) 033112. Send applications to Marilyn Hill, HRD Manager, World Vision of Australia, GPO Box 399C Melbourne 3001
