Schools project update

The project team working on the Information Needs of Schools project has carried out the following activities:

- Completion of a literature search on the role of the teacher-librarian in schools.
- Circulation of a draft structure of the revised Books and Beyond document.
- Development of the educational rationale and curriculum theory section of the document.
- Contact with various groups interested in the project through InCite, Access, Australian Bookseller and Publisher and Classrooms. Teacher Unions throughout Australia have been invited to forward policy documents and information to the project team.
- A teleconference with the Steering Committee to discuss the structure of the proposed document ie Part I Educational Rationale for the use of learning resources in schools program; Part II Strategies for Schools to identify their current use of resources and implement integration of resources into curriculum; Part III Quantitative Standards.
- A visit to Tasmania to collect information from the Department of Education, Catholic Education Office, principals, teachers and teacher-librarians at schools in all systems, State Library staff, parents, students, Elizabeth Computer Centre Senior Staff and Buildings and Properties Personnel.

Follow up correspondence with groups and individuals unable to be seen whilst in Tasmania.

1988 Salary Scales

The 1988 salary scales will be slightly delayed due to the deferment of the 1987 National Wage Case decision.

The decision in this case is expected to be handed down on 28 January 1988 and the 1988 salary scales will be prepared immediately afterwards. It is hoped that they will be available in April.

2nd tier increases

Four percent 2nd tier increases have been gained by library staff in some sectors. These include:

- teacher-librarians in NSW
- library officers working for the Commonwealth Public Service
- library staff in the Victorian Public Service
- library staff in the South Australian Public Service
- library staff in the Western Australian Public Service.

Unions covering library staff in other sectors are continuing to negotiate for 2nd tier increases.
