If you can't quite put your finger on all your library's resources... 3M can help you deter light-fingered "borrowers"!

3M's range of electro-magnetic book detection systems have been proven over the last fifteen years in libraries with both large and small budgets.

"Certainly (the system has) reduced book numbers going 'missing'. (Also) library staff able to relax more with the system providing objective security"

"Staff are able to get on with the business of providing top library service"

Macarthur Institute of Higher Education

(An equal employment opportunity employer)

HEAD INFORMATION RESOURCES CENTRE

Salary: $46,274 p.a.

The Macarthur Institute of Higher Education serves the tertiary education needs of the South West region of Sydney. It currently has 3700 students and expects to have more than 5000 by 1991. The Institute has campuses at Milperra and Campbelltown with major library facilities on each campus.

The Institute has five academic schools; Arts and General Studies, Business and Technology, Community and Welfare Studies, Education and Language Studies and Nursing and Health Studies. The Institute offers a wide range of courses at Associate Diploma, Diploma, Degree and Post-Graduate Diploma levels.

The Information Resources Centre provides library and audiovisual services to students and staff on both the Campbelltown and Milperra campuses. Currently the Centre has a stock of about 85,000 items and 30 members of staff. The Institute is a member of C.L.A.N.N. and has installed on-line cataloguing and circulation and OPAC's.

The Institute is seeking applications from people who have the experience, qualifications and vision to provide dynamic leadership in the management and development of the Centre.

Duties:

The Head of the Information Resources Centre is responsible to the Deputy Principal for the management of the Centre including the provision of quality client-oriented services, financial planning and management, personnel management and staff development, and for the provision of advice on strategies for meeting the changing needs of the Institute.

Qualifications and Experience:

Applicants will be expected to hold appropriate tertiary qualifications and have undertaken post-graduate studies in librarianship or other relevant disciplines. Applicants should preferably be eligible for professional membership of the Library Association of Australia and should have had extensive experience in all aspects of the management and operation of a modern information resources centre particularly as part of an information network.

Previous experience in a tertiary education institution would be an advantage. Applicants should have an awareness of Equal Employment Opportunity issues and have the ability to implement Equal Employment Opportunity initiatives.

Location:

While the successful applicant will be based on the Campbelltown Campus, the demands of the position require that a significant amount of time will need to be spent on the Milperra campus.

Further Information:

Dr. G.T. Alcorn, Deputy Principal
Telephone (046) 20 3302.

Applications including the names and addresses of at least three referees should be addressed to the Recruitment Officer, Macarthur Institute of Higher Education, P.O. Box 555, Campbelltown 2560. Applications close Monday 1st August, 1988.
