Who's where

• Jinette de Gooijer has been appointed to the position of Manager Library Services at IBIS Business Information Pty Limited. IBIS recently acquired the IBIS-DHS business and is undergoing considerable restructuring and expansion. Alicia Bliszczyk has replaced Jinette de Gooijer as the Technical Librarian at Ansett Airlines of Australia. Alicia was previously the Systems Librarian. June Anderson has also joined the new IBIS corporation as an Industry Product Manager responsible for establishing an investment/finance database.

• Marie Wilson has accepted the position of Head, Department of Library and Information Studies, at the Western Australian CAE. She replaces Dr Anne Clyde, who will remain in the department as Senior Lecturer. Cheryl Brickell has accepted a contract position with the department. Cheryl previously worked as an advisor and teacher librarian with the Tasmanian Education Department, Principal Librarian with the Northern Territory Department of Education and Senior College Librarian at the South Brisbane College of TAFE.

Lesla Perzylo has also joined the Library and Information Studies Department for 1988.

Lesla has been seconded from the Education Department of Western Australia, where she has worked for many years as a teacher librarian.

• Two recently appointed staff at Melbourne City Libraries include Administrative Services Librarian, Sabina Robertson, and Morris Bellamy who takes up the new position of Reference and Information Services Librarian. Both Sabina and Morris are located in the new administrative headquarters for Melbourne City Libraries, 12-18 Meyers Place, Melbourne (03) 650 5622.

• After 40 years of working in libraries, Charles Edmund Smith has retired. During the last 26 years of his career he was Library Manager of the Newcastle Region Public Library.

He joined the staff of the State Library of NSW in 1947, became Shire Librarian at Sutherland in 1954. In 1961 he succeeded the late Lindsay Miller at Newcastle. From 1962 to 1975 he also conducted the Newcastle Library School on behalf of the Library Board of NSW in the years before the establishment of library schools in tertiary institutions.

Charles Smith has held many positions within the LAA, including President of the NSW Branch and General Councillor. In 1970 was awarded a Fellowship of the Association.

Charles saw the public library at Newcastle grow from a central library and four branches within the city to a total of 13 libraries in the city and three neighbouring shires. Perhaps his most significant achievement was the Local History Section of the Newcastle Region Central Library which has developed into a major collection of Australiana.
