SUMMER READING PROGRAM

A group of Victorian Children's Librarians is interested in organising a State-wide summer reading program for January 1990 to support the International Year of Literacy (IYL). The program would aim to promote reading and library services for children and cooperation between libraries.

The group expects that its function would be to devise a summer reading program kit, which would be made available to all participating Victorian public libraries for a small fee.

For the program to be successful, it requires your support. If you are interested please contact Meg Moores (Lillydale Library Service (03) 735 0633) or Trevor Trotter (Williamstown City Library (03) 393 9311) by 30 June 1989.
