New Membership Services Manager for ALIA

Jennefer Nicholson has been appointed to this position, and began her new job on Monday, 1 July 1991. She started at the deep end: even before her official commencement date she also attended the Board of Education meeting in Melbourne on 24-26 June, and the meeting with educators on Saturday, 29 June 1991.

Jennefer has a Bachelor of Arts (ANU) and Graduate Diploma in Information Management (UNSW), and is currently studying part-time in the Graduate Public Policy Program at ANU. Her most recent position was as a Manager of the Political Reference Service in Canberra. She has also held several positions in the Commonwealth Parliamentary Library, and has held various other positions with, among others, Medical Sciences Library, ANU and the Australian Institute of Aboriginal Studies.

Good luck, Jennefer — we all look forward to working with you!

Appointments with the State Library of Queensland...

Janet Martin has recently been appointed as Consultant, Young Peoples Services with the Public Libraries Division, State Library of Queensland, after having worked in both library and management positions in South Australia, the Northern Territory, New South Wales and Queensland.

Ivan Catlin, formerly Hobart Regional Librarian with the State Library of Tasmania, has been appointed to the position of Ethnic Services Consultant with the Division.

Robert Pestell, Director, Public Libraries Division, has been elected Secretary/Treasurer of the IFLA Round Table on Mobile Libraries. His recently completed Mobile Library Guidelines will be published by IFLA in August, initially in English, French and Spanish.

... and also with C.D. ROM & Associates

Caroline Beatty, Product Manager at C.D. ROM & Associates, has been appointed as the Australian representative on the editorial advisory board of TFPL's The CD-ROM Directory.

Any new or updated information regarding Australian CD-ROMS should be sent to Caroline at 648 Whitehorse Road, Mitcham, Vic 3132, telephone (03) 872 3211, fax (03) 872 4814.
