Who's Where

Genevieve Avery, formerly a librarian at the State Library of Victoria, has been appointed by CLSI Australia as a Library Consultant in its Port Melbourne head office. Genevieve will provide consultation and training to academic and public libraries using the LIBS 100 library automation system in Victoria. CLSI notes that the LIBS 100 system is the world's most widely used library automation and information access system with over 350 systems installed and 2000 individual libraries online.

Cathy Tweedie left her position of Manager, Library Services, at Bond University in July to accompany her husband Richard (Professor and Dean of the School of Information and Computing Sciences at Bond) to Colorado. There Richard will take up a Professorship with the Department of Statistics and Cathy will become Assistant to the Director of Libraries, both at Colorado State University. □
