

Education for change: grasping the vision

The ELISS Conference, Melbourne, 27-28 June 1991

This interactive conference will help determine future directions for the education and development of our library and information profession over the next decade. The program highlights key trends and issues in the workplace, and the impact of these on education. Don't miss this opportunity to contribute your views and influence the outcomes.

The program and speakers will be as follows:

Panel 1: Keynote Address

Organisational Change and its management

Alison Crook, State Librarian, State Library of NSW

Topic 1: Organisational Cultures — Kerry Grosser, Department of Information Services, RMIT

Topic 2: The impact of changing technologies — Don Schauder and Jeffrey Leeuwenberg, RMIT Libraries

Topic 3: Amalgamations and implications for networking — Sue McKnight, Divisional Librarian reader

Services, Deakin University Library

Panel 2: Keynote Address

Industrial Change Issues

Tom McKeon, Industrial Information Officer, ALIA

Topic 1: Award restructuring/ structural efficiency principal/multi-skilling — Fay Nicholson, Consultant

Topic 2: Performance-based pay systems including job evaluation and job redesign — Norm Amos, Manager, Industry Support, Australian Mines and Metals Association Inc.

Panel 3: Keynote Address

Professional Development Issues for the 90's

Margaret Trask, Executive Director, Australian Information Management Association

Topic 1: Job Satisfaction — Eric Wainwright, Deputy Director General, National Library of Australia

Topic 2: Career Planning — Meg Paul, Director, Freelance Library and Information Services

Topic 3: The role of ALIA in professional development and training — Carol Kenchington, Training and Development Officer, ALIA

Reminder. the early bird registration fee of $195 for members and $255 for non-members ends 27 May 1991. Don't miss out, get your registrations in early.

For further information regarding the conference or to obtain a copy of the Conference Brochure, contact the ALIA Conference Department on (06) 285 1877. □

Correction

Apologies to Patricia Scott and Ruth Porteous. It was the latter's photograph that graced the former's Member of the Order of Australia citation in inCite 5. The Hobart Mercury supplied the photograph as of Miss Scott, and we printed it in good faith.

all human life is here.....

Few aspects of life in this country are not touched by Australian Standards. Over 4500 of them describe products, safety, test methods, specifications, quality. From computers to crash helmets, from concrete to condoms. Australian Standards establish the basis for a safer, more harmonized society.

New 1991 Catalogue

The 1991 edition of the Catalogue of Australian Standards has just been published. As well as providing a synopsis of each Standard, it contains a comprehensive subject index. For reference librarians it is an essential document. Copies are now available at just $25. Contact your nearest Standards Australia office, or our national sales centre at the address below.

Catalogue up-date service

New or revised Australian Standards and draft Standards are issued at a rate of about 50 per month. Where it's necessary to keep your references up to date, we provide an addendum service. For a subscription of just $80 p.a., we provide 10 regular issues of a catalogue addendum. When you order your catalogue, specify this essential up-date service.

STANDARDS AUSTRALIA

setting new Standards for the nation

1 The Crescent Homebush NSW 2140 Phone: (02) 746 4600 Fax: (02) 746 3333