Leo Voogt new IFLA Secretary General

Leo Voogt takes up the position of Secretary General of IFLA starting on
1 October 1992

LEO VOOGT is currently Head of Policy Development staff of the Koninklijke Bibliotheek (National Library of the Netherlands) and Secretary of the Governing Board. He is also Secretary of the National Preservation Office of the Netherlands and the National Bibliographic Centre.

Leo Voogt

Leo Voogt was born in the Netherlands in 1959 and trained as an academic librarian (1977 – 1980). Subsequently he studied history at the University of Leiden, specialising in the history of European expansion overseas.

Previous employment includes posts with the Centre for Overseas History of the University of Leiden; Burgersdijk and Niemans International Auctioneers and Antiquarian Booksellers; and RABIN (Netherlands Council for Libraries and Information Services). In these positions he became involved in international activities and cooperation in various fields, an involvement deepened by his activities for the Koninklijke Bibliotheek, particularly in the fields of bibliographic exchange.

Leo Voogt will be introduced to IFLA's members at the 58th IFLA General Conference to be held in Delhi, 30 August – 5 September 1992. ■
