Who's Where

A NEW MANAGEMENT structure has been created at Griffith University in response to the growth of the University, both on the Nathan Campus and by amalgamation.
Brian Cook, the former University Librarian, has now been appointed Pro-Vice-Chancellor Information Services, in which capacity he oversees Educational Technology Services, Information Technology Services and the Library.
Janice Rickards takes up the position of University Librarian from 11 January. Janice has been at QUT since 1977, where she has been Associate Librarian and Deputy since the amalgamation of QUT and BCAE. Before that she was the Librarian-in-Charge at DPI.
Ian Hayden has been appointed to the position of Multimedia Librarian at Flinders University. Ian's previous appointment was as Engineering Librarian at the University of South Australia.
Therese Kercher has exchanged positions for six months with Helen Mandl, and is now the Divisional Support Officer at ALIA House. Meanwhile, Helen will supervise circulation and short-loan procedures in the W K Hancock building of the ANU Library, and will also assist on the readers adviser's desk.
Phil Lloyd is now RAECO Technology's Northern Region Manager. Based in Sydney, Phil has worked with AWA and Dynix; and as an Information Technology and Management Consultant to libraries. Contact him at RAECO's Sydney office on (02) 757 1400; Free Call (008) 451 767; or Fax (02) 725 3636.
Julie Fullerton has returned to the library industry as RAECO's Area Manager for Queensland. Julie has 8 years experience working in public, special and academic libraries. Her experience and qualifications as a library technician afford her good knowledge of library product and service requirements. Contact her at RAECO's Brisbane office on (07) 844 4495; Free Call (008) 172 027; or Fax (07) 844 7335.
