

From the Editor

OUR SINCERE apologies to those of you who received your copy of inCite 1 late, and particularly to those of you who had Events entries delayed. We (and our printers and distributors) had some unexpected production problems as a result of the changes in format and frequency. We hope that these have now been ironed out and that we shall now return to our former record of punctual publication.

Events and other adverts

Several members who have seen the new inCite advertising rates card have inquired anxiously whether they will have to pay for inserting Events in future. Not so—the rates card is intended primarily for our commercial advertisers, and the prices quoted in the card refer only to the commercial rates. ALIA Divisions will continue to place their Event inCite free of charge, and should send Events entries directly to the Editor at ALIA National Office in Canberra (note the 30 word limit!) by 10 am on the deadline date for each issue.

ALIA Divisions will also continue to enjoy a 50% discount on insertions and all advertisements up to a quarter page; these should be booked with Simon Hazelbrook in Sydney, as explained on p 20 of inCite 1. The price to an ALIA Division of a larger advertisement will be negotiated on a case by case basis

inCite deadlines

Deadlines are 10.00 am (i.e., first post, NOT 'close of business') on the dates shown. We are running a tight schedule, and must be quite ruthless about not accepting material that comes in late.
